Meals: B, D

Accomm: Fountainside Motor Inn, Hobart

Day 3: Friday 13th April 2018

Hobart

Depart the accommodation after breakfast and travel via Sorell and Midway Point to the Tasman Peninsula. Take in the rugged coastline and magnificent views from lookouts above Eaglehawk Neck and Pirates Bay before continuing on to Port Arthur. The Port Arthur Convict Settlement is 40 hectares of landscaped grounds holding over 30 buildings and many incredible stories of Australia’s convict history. Take a guided walking tour of the small village, cruise the harbour or simply explore the ruins, gardens and restored houses at your leisure. There are places to enjoy lunch (own expense) while exploring the historical port. Discover the Visitor Centre and Interpretation Gallery before departing to tour beside Norfolk and Frederick Henry Bays, return to our accommodation in Hobart.

Meals: B, D

Accomm: Fountainside Motor Inn, Hobart

Day 4: Saturday 14th April 2018

Hobart – Queenstown

Saturday morning in Hobart means the famous Salamanca open-air Market. Spend some time exploring the bustle, buskers and over 300 stalls selling art, craft, food and hand-made goodies. Grab a souvenir before boarding the coach mid-morning for travel through the Derwent Valley, New Norfolk, the Central Plateau and Wild Rivers National Park. Marvel at the natural beauty of trout lakes, mountains and gorges as well as ‘The Wall in the Wilderness’; an extraordinary work of intricately carved Tasmanian Timbers. Pause for a rainforest boardwalk to beautiful Nelson Waterfalls before crossing Lake Burbury and descending through the ghost towns of Linda and Gormanston to the copper mining town of Queenstown.

Meals: B, D

Accomm: Gold Rush Inn, Queenstown

Day 5: Sunday 15th April 2018

Queenstown

Depart after breakfast for transfer to Strahan for a cruise up the Gordon River into the heart of Tasmania’s wilderness. Cross vast Macquarie Harbour and cruise past Sarah Island, a convict camp with a gruesome history. Follow the Gordon through strands of ancient Huon pine, sassafras and myrtle rainforest and step ashore for a wilderness boardwalk at Heritage Landing. Board the vessel again and voyage to Hell’s Gates, the aptly named harbour entrance where many early ships were destroyed by ferocious conditions. Return to Strahan afterwards and spend some time exploring the village. The visitor centre and Huon pin saw mill are also worth a look before returning to Queenstown.
